

INCUMBENT WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT TRAINING GRANT

ROUND-ONE IS NOW OPEN!

Applications must be received in our office by mail or hand delivery on or before September 15, 2010.

What is North Carolina's Incumbent Workforce Development Training Grant Program?

The purpose of the IWD program is to help established North Carolina businesses provide training and education for existing workers, which may result in improved employee productivity, reduced employee turnover, and increased business competitiveness. The grant program is a way to assist employers with the training cost they may incur to upgrade employee skills, increase employee wages, provide training in portable (transferable) skills, and promoting business retention.

Who can apply for the grant?

North Carolina for-profit and not-for-profit businesses that have been in operation for a minimum of one year prior to the application date, are current on all federal and state tax obligations, and are financially viable are eligible to apply.

What types of training can be funded by the IWDP?

- Occupational skills training or job specific skill training designed to meet the special requirements of a business.
- Educational training including, but not limited to, workplace literacy, basic skills, soft skills, and English as a second language.
 - Training in strategies to improve efficiency of business operations.

Are there other opportunities to submit applications?

Applications will also be accepted at other dates throughout the year. These dates are:

Monday, January 17, 2011

Monday, May 16, 2011

How do I find out more about the IWDP grant?

Contact:

R. Wayne Rollins

252-974-1821

wrollins@midwestcom.org

www.regionqwdb.org

OPEN

OPEN